Mr. Tom Buggia
563 Cedar Acres
Bellingham, WA 98225

Dear Mr. Buggia:

At the request of the South Chuckanut Joint Venture, this Forest Management Report is hereby submitted.

Legal Description of Subject Property

SE1/4 Section 5; portion of the NE1/4 Section 7; portion of Section 8; the S1/2 NW1/4 SW1/4 Section 9, all in Township 36 North, Range 3 East, W.M. Skagit County Washington.

Management Recommendations

This property is very unique in that it offers the opportunity to provide homesites with spectacular views in a forest environment.

With proper planning, these homesites should be compatible with a forest management and reforestation program. This concept is permitted under the existing zoning of Forestry which allows one dwelling unit per 20 acres.

The current tax status of the property is classified Forestry, which requires a minimum of 20 acres to be committed to forest management per respective ownership. I recommend converting to the Skagit County designation of Open Space Timber, where the net forest acreage requirement is five or more acres per respective ownership. Therefore, each 20 acre parcel may have a portion improved for a homesite and the balance, not less than five acres, be committed to forest management. That portion identified as a homesite will be subject to a compensating "roll-back" tax. The Skagit County Assessors Office should provide you with the necessary detail for the appropriate designations.

The property is diverse in site characteristics, therefore, the intensity of forest management will be determined by individual site locations. There are two major forest types; the southern unit and northern unit.

The southern unit in Section 7, 8 and 9 is primarily composed of isolated poorly stocked stands of Douglas-fir, Western Red Cedar and Western Hemlock. These stands are located in flats, benches and draws throughout the unit and separated by large rock outcrops. The major soil type in this unit is the Dystric Xerochrepts-Rock Outcrop Complex, consisting of steep slopes, rock outcrops and isolated flat benches (a detailed description of all soil types, as described by the Soil Conservation Service, is attached to the Addenda).

The flats and benches in this unit should be utilized for potential homesites. Trees may be selectively logged and cleared for homesites, view corridors and fire protection buffers. Natural seeding of the residual stand should provide an adequate source of stocking which will be limited due to the poor growing site (site Class IV) and presence of large rock outcrops. Reforestation will not be required provided less than 50 percent of the timber volume in a given stand is removed within a five year period. Please note that Forest Practice Application is required by Washington State Department of Natural Resources for any harvest of merchantable timber.

The northern unit in the SE1/4 Section 5 has been clear cut this year and yarded with a cable system. The major soil type is the Chuckanut gravelly loam with striations of the Dystric Xerochrepts-Rock Outcrop Complex. Site class ranges from II to IV.

To provide adequate stocking for forest management, the harvester should prepare and plant the unit with Douglas-fir, preferably 2-1 or 1-1 from the appropriate seed zone. Reforestation must comply with the requirements pursuant to WAC 222-34-010,030,040 and RCW 76.09.070.

During the record growing season, the Douglas-fir plantation should be evaluated for competing vegetation. It may be necessary to helicopter spray portions of the unit with herbicide, such as Roundup, to control brush.

Small Red Alder stands were left in draws throughout the unit. This seed source may compete with the adjacent planted Douglas-fir. The landowner may need to apply extra brush control or allow a mixed stand of Red Alder and Douglas-Fir in these transitional areas.

Landings used for logging are often prime candidates for homesites. Benches and other level areas in this unit also provide excellent homesites. Plan ahead and locate the homesites, then configure the twenty acre lots around these locations. It is important that slash and other debris, be cleared from sites prior to home construction as a fire buffer. Leave a safety zone around homes by clearing out flammable vegetation.

Enclosed with this report is a Home Protection Guide. This book provides information that may assist you to prevent losses from wildfire.

The road through the property has been improved to provide access for emergency vehicles, such as fire trucks and aid cars. I understand the property has been accepted into the local fire district. This road system will also provide excellent access for continued forest management.

I feel the concept of combining forest management low density housing of one home per 20 acres is an excellent option for this property.

If you have any questions on these recommendations, please feel free to call.

Sincerely,

Marc Kalkoske
Forester
