RECORDED _____ FILED _____
REQUEST OF Gilad

THE GRANTOR, KENNETH F. JENKINS, (also shown of record as Kenneth J. Jenkins) individually as his separate property, and as surviving spouse of Katherine Jenkins, deceased, for and in consideration of love and affection, x Dollars

~~xxxxxx~~ conveys and warrants to KENNETH DALE JENKINS and EUNICE JENKINS, husband and wife, the following described real estate, situated in the County of Skagit, State of Washington:

Commencing 60 feet in an easterly direction from the northeast corner of Block 16, as per Seigfried's First Addition to the Town of Bayview, Washington; thence running in an easterly direction and parallel with "C" Street, if the same were extended, a distance of 80 feet; thence southerly and parallel with 5th Street 100 feet; thence westerly parallel to "C" Street 80 feet; thence north 100 feet to point of beginning.

TOGETHER WITH the following additional real estate, which grantor conveys and quit claims to grantees, which was inadvertently omitted from that deed being hereby corrected, dated February 16, 1959, and recorded under Skagit Auditor's File No. 580093, which omission was caused by the fact that the streets within the "A. Seigfried's First Plat of Bayview, Padilla Bay" are 80 feet wide, but streets fronting on the above described property are only 60 feet wide, said addition being described as "That certain ten foot wide strip of land lying adjacent to and along the northwesterly edge of the above described real estate".
