HOWEVER, any forbearance by the Government-whether once or often-in exercising any right or remedy under this instrument, or otherwise afforded by applicable law, shall not be a waiver of or preclude the exercise of any such right or remedy.

(15) Default hereunder shall constitute default under any other real estate, or under any personal property or other secured instrument held or insured by the Government and executed or assumed by Borrower, and default under any such other security instrument shall constitute default hereunder.

(16) SHOULD DEFAULT occur in the performance or discharge of any obligation in this instrument or secured by this instrument, or should the parties named as Borrower die or be declared incompetent, or should any one of the parties named as Borrower be discharged in bankruptcy or declared an insolvent, or make an assignment for the benefit of creditors, the Government, at its option, with or without notice, may: (a) declare the entire amount unpaid under the note and any indebtedness to the Government hereby secured immediately due and payable, (b) for the account of borrower incur and pay reasonable expenses for repair or maintenance of and take possession of, operate or rent the property, (c) upon application by it and production of this instrument, without other evidence and without notice of hearing of said application, have a receiver appointed for the property, with the usual powers of receivers in like cases, and (d) authorize and request Trustee to foreclose this instrument and sell the property as provided by law.

(17) At the request of the Government, Trustee may foreclose this instrument by advertisement and sale of the property as provided by law, for cash or secured credit at the option of the Government; and at such sale the Government and its agents may bid and purchase as a stranger; Trustee at Trustee's option may conduct such sale without being personally present, through Trustee's delegate authorized by Trustee for such purpose orally or in writing and Trustee's execution of a conveyance of the property or any part thereof to any purchaser at foreclosure sale shall be conclusive evidence that the sale was conducted by Trustee personally or through Trustee's delegate duly authorized in accordance herewith.

In case the Government is the successful bidder at foreclosure or other sale of all or any part of the property, the Government may pay its share of the purchase price by crediting such amount on any debts of borrower owing to or insured by the Government, in the order prescribed above.

(19) All powers and agencies granted in this instrument are coupled with an interest and are irrevocable by death or otherwise; and the rights and remedies provided in this instrument are cumulative to remedies provided by law.

(20) Borrower agrees that the government will not be bound by any present or future State laws, (a) providing for valuation, appraisal, homestead or exemption of the property, (b) prohibiting maintenance of an action for a deficiency judgment or limiting the amount there or the time within which such action may be brought, (c) prescribing any other statute of limitations, (d) allowing any right or redemption or possession following any foreclosure sale, or (e) limiting the conditions which the Government may by regulation impose, including the interest rate it may charge, as a condition of approving a transfer of the property to a new Borrower. Borrower expressly waives the benefit of any such state law. Borrower hereby relinquishes, waives, and conveys all rights, inchoate or consummate, of descent, dower, and curtesy.

(21) If any part of the loan for which this instrument is given shall be used to finance the purchase, construction or repair of property to be used as an owner-occupied dwelling (herein called "the dwelling") and if Borrower intends to sell or rent the dwelling and has obtained the Government's consent to do so (a) neither Borrower nor anyone authorized to act for borrower will, after receipt of a bona fide offer, refuse to negotiate for the sale or rental of the dwelling or will otherwise make unavailable or deny the dwelling to anyone because of race, color, religion, sex or national origin, and (b) Borrower recognizes as illegal and hereby disclaims, and will not comply with or attempt to enforce any restrictive covenants on the dwelling relating to race, color, religion, sex or national origin.

(22) This instrument shall be subject to the present regulations of the United States Department of Agriculture, Rural Development, or those of its successor agencies under P.L. 103-354, and to those future regulations not inconsistent with the express provision thereof.

(23) Borrower hereby assigns to and confers upon the government profits, and income of the property, reserving to Borrower the right to coll

(24) Notices given hereunder shall be sent by certified mail, unless otherwise required by law, addressed, unless and until some other address is designated in a notice so given, in the case of the Government to the Rural Housing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, 1835 Black Lake Blvd. SW, Olympia, WA 98512, and in the case of Borrower to Borrower at the address shown in the Rural Housing Service Finance Office records (which normally will be the same as the post office address shown above).

(25) Upon full and final payment of all indebtedness hereby secured and the performance and discharge of each and every condition, agreement and obligation, contingent or otherwise, contained herein or secured hereby, but not sooner than the due date of the final installment as stated herein, the Government shall request trustee to execute and deliver to Borrower at Borrower's above post office address a deed of reconveyance of the property within 60 days after written demand by Borrower, and Borrower hereby waives the benefits of all laws requiring earlier execution or delivery of such deed of reconveyance.

(26) If any provision of this instrument or application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity will not affect other provisions or applications of the instrument which can be given effect without the invalid provision of application, and to that end the provisions hereof are declared to be severable.

(27) The property described herein was obtained or improved through Federal financial assistance. This property is subject to the provisions of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the regulations issued pursuant thereto for as long as the property continues to be used for the same or similar purpose for which financial assistance was extended or for as long as the purchaser owns it, whichever is longer.

(28) This instrument also secures the obligations and covenants of Borrower set forth in Borrower's Loan Resolution of September 12, 2003, as amended, which is hereby incorporated herein by reference.

(29) The Borrower and any successors in interest agree to use the housing for the purpose of housing people eligible for occupancy as provided in Section 515 of Title V of the Housing Act of 1949 and RD Regulations, or those of its successor agencies under P.L. 103-354, then extant during the full term of the Deed of Trust. No eligible person occupying the housing will be required to vacate nor any eligible person denied occupancy for housing prior to close of such period because of a prohibited change in the use of the housing. A tenant may seek enforcement of this provision as will as the Government.
