ARTICLE 7

ALLOCATION OF UNDIVIDED INTERESTS IN COMMON ELEMENTS

ARTICLE 8

COMMON PROFITS AND EXPENSES; VOTING

8.1 Allocation of Common Profits and Expenses. The common profits and common expenses of the Condominium shall be allocated 50% each to the owners of the two units. Except upon termination of the Condominium or as otherwise provided in the Bylaws with respect to damage, destruction, or condemnation, any such common profits shall be used solely for the purpose of maintaining, repairing and replacing the common elements or for other expenses or reserves of the Association.

9.2 Additional Rights. Declarant shall also have easement rights over and upon the common elements as provided for in article 12.3 below.

ARTICLE 10

Additional limitations and regulations on use are set forth in Article 11 below and as may be contained in the Bylaws and the rules and regulations adopted pursuant to the Bylaws of the Association of Unit Owners. ARTICLE 11

MAINTENANCE

11.1 Common Elements. The necessary work to maintain, repair or replace the common elements shall be the responsibility of the Board of Directors of the Association and shall be carried out as provided in the Bylaws.

11.2 Mortgagee's Rights Upon Failure to Maintain. If the Mortgagee of any Unit determines that the Board of Directors is not providing an adequate maintenance, repair, and replacement program for the common elements, such Mortgagee, at its option, may give a notice to the Board of Directors by delivering same to the registered agent, setting forth the particular defect which it believes exists in the maintenance, repair, and replacement program. If the specified defects are not corrected within 90 days subsequent to receipt of such notice, then the Mortgagee, upon written notice to the registered agent that it is exercising its proxy rights, shall have the right to attend succeeding annual or special meetings of the Association and to cast a vote for each Unit on which it holds a Mortgage on all business coming before such meeting. Such proxy rights shall continue until the defects listed on the notice are corrected.

Each owner shall, at the owner's sole expense, keep the interior of their Unit in good repair and in a clean and sanitary condition and shall do all painting, staining or other repairs necessary to maintain the good appearance and condition of their Unit. Each owner shall be responsible for the maintenance, repair, and replacement of any plumbing fixtures, water heaters, fans, heating equipment, electrical fixtures or appliances which are in the Unit that serve that Unit only, and shall replace any glass in the windows and in the exterior doors of the Unit that become cracked or broken.

11.4 Limited Common Elements. Each owner shall maintain the limited common elements assigned to it in a clean and sanitary condition and shall not permit waste thereon. The outside parking spaces are restricted for the parking of operative vehicles. The flower bed areas in the limited common element shall be maintained with appropriate plantings. All of the expense connected with the maintenance and repair of the limited common elements assigned to each unit shall be at the sole expense of the owner of that unit.

11.5 Exterior Appearance. In order to preserve a uniform exterior appearance to the building, and the common limited common elements visible to the public, the Board may require and provide for the painting and other decorative finish of the building, patios, decks, or other common or limited common elements, and prescribe the type and color of such decorative finishes, and may prohibit, require or regulate any modification or decoration of the building, patios, decks, or other common and limited common elements undertaken or proposed by any owner. This power of the Board extends to screens, doors, awnings, rails or other visible portions of each unit. The Board may also require use of a uniform color of draperies, under draperies or drapery lining for both units.

The Board of Directors of the Association, managing agent, manager or any other person authorized by the Board of Directors shall have the right to enter any Unit in the case of an emergency originating in or threatening such Unit or other condominium property, whether or not the Owner is present at the time. Such persons shall also have the right to enter any Unit for the purpose of inspection to verify that the Unit Owner is complying with the restrictions and requirements described in this Declaration and the Bylaws, provided that requests for entry are made in advance and that such entry is at a time convenient to the Owner.

12.3 Easements for Declarant. Declarant and Declarant's agents, successors, and assigns shall have an easement over and upon the common elements as may be reasonably necessary for the purpose of completing or making repairs to existing structures and for the purpose of discharging any other obligation of Declarant or exercising any other special Declarant right, whether arising under the Washington Condominium Act or reserved in this Declaration.
