amendments, deeds, leases, mortgages, notes, security agreements, checks, drafts, guarantees, bills of sale, assignments, extensions, satisfactions, releases, waivers, consents, affidavits, transfer tax returns, closing documents, and any other agreements, writings and instruments of any nature affecting the property, as my attorney-in-fact may deem necessary or appropriate; to prosecute, defend, intervene in, arbitrate, appeal, compromise, settle and otherwise deal with any claim, action or proceeding in connection with the property or the sale thereof; to do, execute, perform and finish for me and in my name all things which my attorney-in-fact shall deem necessary or appropriate in connection with the sale of the property.

In addition, I specifically authorize my attorney-in-fact to make gifts, outright or in trust, of my property to or for the benefit of such persons within the class of permitted donees hereafter described as, in the opinion of my attorney-in-fact, would be the donees I might choose, having in mind the resources, both public and private, available for my care after the making of such gifts, and having in mind the objective of preserving the largest amount of my property for my family as a whole. The class of permitted donees shall consist solely of my wife, my children and more remote issue, the spouses of my children and more remote issue, or any custodian or guardian for the benefit of any of the foregoing or any trust for the benefit of any of the foregoing. The gifts to each donee shall not exceed in aggregate, in any calendar year, the amount excludible from gifts for gift tax purposes by virtue of Section 2503(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, or any successor thereto, in effect in the year in question (currently $10,000 under said statute, heretofore adjusted to $11,000 and subject to further adjustment for inflation), provided that during any time that I am married the gift to each donee shall not exceed twice the amount so excludible (currently $20,000 under said statute, heretofore adjusted to $22,000 and subject to further adjustment for inflation). I authorize my attorney-in-fact to consent to splitting gifts with my wife so that the annual exclusions, unified credits, and generation skipping transfer tax exemptions and exclusions of both my wife and myself may be used. Gifts in excess of said limit may be made to pay tuition costs and medical expenses so long as the payment of such gifts is made in a manner so as not to be subject to gift or generation skipping transfer taxes pursuant to Sections 2503(e) and 2611(b)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code, or any successor thereto. In no event shall any gifts be made to my attorney-in-fact, or to the creditors of my attorney-in-fact, or to the estate of my attorney-in-fact, or to the creditors of the estate of my attorney-in-fact.

In addition, I specifically authorize my attorney-in-fact to deal with tax authorities, to execute, sign and file on my behalf any and all federal, state, local and foreign income, gift, payroll and other tax returns, including estimated returns and interest, dividends, gains and transfer returns, for all periods; to pay any taxes, penalties and interest due thereon; to allocate generation skipping transfer tax exemptions (within the meaning of Section 2642(a) of the Internal Revenue Code) and to make tax elections; to represent me or to sign an Internal Revenue Service Form 2848 (Power of Attorney and Declaration of Representative) or Form 8821 (Tax Information Authorization), or comparable authorization, appointing a qualified lawyer, certified public accountant or enrolled agent (including my attorney-in-fact if so qualified) to represent me before any office of the Internal Revenue Service or any state, local or foreign taxing authority with respect to the types of taxes and years referred to above, and to specify on said authorization said types of taxes and years; to receive from or inspect confidential information in any office of the Internal Revenue Service or state, local or foreign tax authority; to receive and deposit, in any one of my bank accounts, or those of any revocable trust of mine, checks in payment of any refund of federal, state, local or foreign taxes, penalties and interest; to pay by check drawn on any bank account of mine or of any revocable trust of mine and have accounts to permit my attorney-in-fact to draw checks for payment of said items; to execute waivers (and offers of waivers) of restrictions on assessment or collection of deficiencies in taxes and waivers of notice of disallowance of a claim for credit or refund; to execute any requests for extension of time and consents extending the statutory period for assessment or collection of such taxes; to execute petitions contesting taxes; to establish new residency and domicile; to execute offers in compromise and closing Agreements under Section 7121 or comparable provisions of the Internal Revenue Code or any federal, state, local or foreign tax statutes or regulations; to delegate authority or to substitute another representative for any one previously appointed by me or my attorney-in-fact; and to receive copies of all notices and other written communications involving my federal, state, local or foreign taxes at such address as my attorney-in-fact may designate.

In addition, I specifically authorize my attorney-in-fact to make voluntary contributions to, transfer assets between, and withdraw amounts from any qualified retirement benefit plan or individual retirement account (including Roth IRA's); to change beneficiary designations on any such plan or IRA; to waive spousal rights on any such plan or IRA; to convert an IRA to a Roth IRA; to make elections with respect to the timing, method and amounts of withdrawals, distributions and/or rollovers, methods of calculating minimum required distributions, and methods of distribution as a beneficiary of another's plan or IRA; and to take any other actions with respect to any such plan or IRA as I could take.

This power of attorney shall take effect upon my becoming physically disabled, mentally incompetent or otherwise incapacitated. Any third party may rely upon the written declaration of my attorney-in-fact that such contingency has occurred.

To induce any third party to act hereunder, I hereby agree that any third party receiving a duly executed copy or facsimile of this power of attorney may act hereunder, and that revocation or termination hereof shall be ineffective as to such third party unless and until actual notice or knowledge of such revocation or termination shall have been received by such third party. I, for myself and my heirs, executors, legal representatives and assigns, hereby agree to indemnify and hold harmless any such third party from and against any and all claims that may arise against such third party by reason of such third party having relied upon the provisions of this power of attorney.

This power of attorney shall be governed by Washington law, although I request that it be honored in any state or other location in which I or my property may be found. If any provisions hereof shall be unenforceable or invalid, such unenforceability or invalidity shall not affect the remaining provisions of this power of attorney.
