- 1. I am the surviving spouse of Donald F. Hoare who died at a resident of Skagit County, Washington at Mount Vernon on November 15, 2006, having provided for the disposition of all community property between myself and my deceased spouse under Community Property Agreement dated December 6, 2005. A true and correct copy of this Community Property Agreement is attached hereto and incorporated herein. Attached also is a true and correct copy of the death certificate that was issued herein. This Community Property Agreement was validly executed and in full force and effect at the death of the decedent.
- 2. The decedent executed no wills, agreements to convey, conveyances, mortgages, deeds of trust, lien agreements or other instruments for the purpose of conveying or encumbering the assets listed below, any portion thereof, or any interest therein other than the instruments which have been duly recorded in the office of the Auditor of the location of the asset, except the above Community Property Agreement.
- 3. There are no unpaid creditors of said decedent or of the former marital community nor unpaid funeral expenses or expenses of last illness. The estate is fully solvent.
- 4. The decedent left surviving, in addition to the undersigned, the following children: Patricia L. Strachila, Lauretta M. Smailes, Robert D. Hoare, Frank A. Horton, Bradley J. Hoare, Donald L. Hoare and Kathleen E. Bjornberg.
- 5. The decedent did not receive any medical assistance paid for or provided by the Washington State Department of Social and Health Services (DSHS), including nursing facility services, home or community-based services, hospital, prescription drugs or any other services.
- 6. There was no separate property.
- 7. Among other items of community property was the following described real estate:
 - 1. Residence located at 92 S 6th Street, Mount Vernon, Wash. 3761-001-003-0008 P54456

If husband dies and wife survives, any separate property of husband which is owned by husband at the time of his death (except for assets for which husband has made a separate beneficiary designation other than by will) shall become and be considered community property vested as of the moment of his death, and if wife dies and husband survives her, any separate property of wife which is owned by wife at the time of her death (except for assets for which wife has made a separate beneficiary designation other than by will) shall become and be considered community property vested as of the moment of her death. All such property is regarded to in this agreement as the "described community property."

- 2. Vesting at death of a spouse: If husband dies and wife survives him, all of the described community property shall vest in wife as of the moment of husband's death. If wife dies and husband survives her, all of the described community property shall vest in husband as of the moment of wife's death.
- 3. Disclaimer: Upon the death of either spouse, the surviving spouse may disclaim any interest passing under this agreement in whole or in part, or with reference to specific parts, shares or assets thereof, in which event the interest disclaimed shall pass as if the provisions of paragraph 2 had been revoked as to such interest with the surviving spouse entitled to the benefits provided by any alternate disposition.
- 4. Automatic revocation: The provisions of paragraph 2 shall be automatically revoked:
 - a. Upon the filing by either party of a petition, complaint or other pleading for separation, dissolution or divorce; or
 - b. Upon the establishment of a domicile out of the State of Washington by either party; or
 - c. Immediately prior to death, if the order of death cannot be ascertained.
- 5. Optional revocation by one party: If either party becomes disabled, the other party shall have the power to terminate any or all provisions of this document and each party designates the other as attorney-in-fact to become effective upon disability to exercise such power. The termination shall be effective upon the delivery of written notice thereof to the disabled spouse and to the guardian(s), if any, of the person and of the estate of the disabled person. For the purposes of this paragraph, spouse shall be deemed disabled if a person duly licensed to practice medicine in the state of Washington signs a statement declaring that the person is unable to manage his or her own affairs.

Birth Certificates:

- Only a parent, legal guardian (if the child is under 18), or the adult themselves (if 18 or older) may change the birth certificate.

 The proof(s) must match exactly the asserted true fact(s). For example, if the affidavit says the name is Mary Ann Doe, then the proof must show the name to be Mary Ann Doe, Mary A. Doe or M.A. Doe does not prove the name is Mary Ann Doe.
- 3.
- Proof must be five (or more) years old or have been established within five years of birth.

 Up to age one, the parent(s) or legal guardian may change the child's last name with an affidavit for correction, provided:
 - This is a one time only change. Subsequent changes will require a certified copy of a court ordered name change.
 - The new last name may be the mother's maiden name or father's name (if present on the certificate) or any combination of the two.
 - After age one, last name changes require a certified copy of a court ordered name change. Minor spelling changes may be made with an affidavit and documentary proof.
- Parent(s) may change their child's first or middle name by completing and signing an affidavit for correction (until their child's 18th birthday). This affidavit cannot be used to add a father to a birth certificate. (Use the paternity affidavit form DOH/CHS 021)

Death Certificates:

- Only the informant, the funeral director, or executors/administrators (if evidence confirming such position is presented) may change the non-medical 1. information.
- The medical information (cause of death) may be changed only by the certifying physician or the coroner/medical examiner.
- If it is less than sixty days from date of death please contact the county health department where the death occurred to make changes. 3.

Marriage/Dissolution (Divorce) Certificates:

- Personal fact(s) (minor spelling changes in name, date or place of birth or residence) may be changed by affidavit (with proof) by the person. To change the date or place of marriage or dissolution, the officiant (marriage) or clerk of court (dissolution) must sign the affidavit.
