16 ARTICLE IX

17 Powers And Duties Of Trustee

18 9.1 General. Trustee shall have full power to sell, dispose of, invest, 19 reinvest, exchange and manage the assets of the Trust Estate and shall have all 20 of the powers incident to Trustees as provided by Washington State law, as 21 amended from time to time, except insofar as it may be inconsistent with other 22 express provisions of this instrument, which provisions shall control. In furtherance of these powers and without limitation, Trustee shall have the power:

(a) To hold any or all of the Trust Estate of any Trust created herein in the form of investment in which received, or to invest, reinvest, sell, encumber, lease, exchange, dispose of and manage the Trust Estate in the same manner as though the absolute owner thereof without restriction of any law

1 | pertaining to such management or investment.

2 | (b) To acquire by purchase or otherwise, and to retain so long
3 | as they deem advisable, any kind of realty or personal property, or undivided
4 | interests therein, including common and preferred stocks, bonds or other
5 | unsecured obligations, options, margin transactions, commodities, warrants, 6 | interests in investment trusts and discretionary common trust funds, all without 7 | diversification as to kind or amount, without being limited to investments
8 | authorized by law for the investment of trust funds; to hold or take title to property
9 | in the name of a nominee or in bearer form; to buy, sell and trade in securities of 10 | any nature, including short sales, on margin, and for such purposes the Trustee
11 | may maintain and operate margin accounts with brokers, and pledge any 12 | securities held or purchased as security for loans and advances made to the 13 | Trustee.

14 | (c) To borrow funds for any Trust created herein in such 15 | amounts and for such purposes as shall seem to the Trustee in the best interest
16 | of such Trust and the beneficiary thereof, and to purchase property on the credit
17 | of a Trust and in connection with such borrowing, or such purchase, to establish 18 | a credit line or credit card arrangement, to execute and deliver promissory notes
19 | or other evidences of indebtedness of that Trust and/or to mortgage, create a 20 | security interest in, or pledge all or any part of the Trust Estate of that Trust to 21 | secure payment of such indebtedness, and to repay such indebtedness out of 22 | the Trust Estate of that Trust.

(d) To hold and retain in the same form as received any and all property transferred to the Trustee for administration hereunder (and additions thereto), even though such property not be of a nature or character authorized under the laws of the State of Washington or of any other state or jurisdiction for Trust investments, or be unsecured, unproductive, underproductive, overproductive, or be of a wasting nature, or be inconsistent with the usual

1 concepts of diversification of Trust assets. Solely at the risk of the Trust Estate, 2 the Trustee may continue to carry on any business in which a Trustor had an active interest at the time of either Trustor's death.

3 (e) To purchase any property of either Trustor's probate estate 4 or any Trust hereunder at fair market value at the time of purchase. Trustee may 5 make loans or advancements, secured or unsecured, to the Personal 6 Representative of either Trustor's probate estate or to the Trustee of any Trust, established hereunder.

7 9.2 Waiver of Notice. Pursuant to RCW 11.97.010, the Trustee shall 8 be relieved of any and all restrictions, duties and liabilities imposed by or arising 9 from RCW 11.100.140 or any similar requirements of prior case law (as specified 10 in RCW 11.100.140(8) regarding notice and procedure for non-routine 11 transactions, and Trustee shall not be liable to any person for any loss, damage, cause of action or claim attributable to Trustee's failure to comply with RCW 11.100.140 or any similar requirements of prior case law.

12 9.3 Investment Advisors. Trustee may retain on behalf of any Trust 13 one or more investment advisors to assist Trustee in the management of all or 14 any portion of a Trust Estate. Trustee shall not be liable for any loss caused by 15 or resulting from any action taken or omitted in reliance on any recommendation 16 by the investment advisor regarding the investment of Trust assets, so long as 17 the selection of the investment advisor and the reliance on the advice was in good faith. Trustee shall not be required to follow the advice of any investment advisor.

18 9.4 Determination of Principal and Income. Trustee shall not be 19 required to make any adjustments in bookkeeping as between the income and 20 principal accounts in connection with premiums paid or discounts received on 21 securities purchased. Trustee is authorized to credit or to charge premiums or discounts on investments, and any stock dividends, extraordinary dividends or 1 other receipts, and any estate or inheritance or other taxes or charges, either to 2 or against principal or income, as in Trustee's discretion shall seem just and 3 proper under the circumstances. Any such action by the Trustee shall be binding 4 and conclusive against all parties claiming hereunder. Income which by exercise 5 of Trustee's discretion is not distributed to beneficiaries shall be added to the 6 principal of the Trust from which it was derived not less frequently than annually.

7 Trustee shall not be required to establish a reserve for depreciation and shall not 8 treat any portion of the proceeds from a sale of underproductive property as 9 delayed income. Except as specifically otherwise provided in this Article 9.4, the 10 Trustee and any Trust established under this instrument shall be subject to the 11 provisions of the Washington Principal and Income Act (RCW Chapter 11.104).
Any interest or penalties attributable to Death Taxes and paid by Trustee may be charged, in Trustee's discretion, to either income or principal of the Trust Estate or part to each.

12       9.5 Distributions to Beneficiaries. Trustee may make non-pro rata 13 distributions in kind and in doing so may, but shall not be required to, consider 14 the basis of Trust assets for income tax purposes and the tax brackets of 15 beneficiaries. During the minority or disability of any beneficiary, distributions of 16 income and principal to the beneficiary may be made directly to the beneficiary, 17 to his or her natural or legal guardian or to any relative of the beneficiary to be 18 expended for the beneficiary's benefit. Distributions for a beneficiary under the 19 age of twenty-one (21) may be made to a "Custodian under the Washington 20 Uniform Transfers to Minors Act," as selected by Trustee. Trustee shall not be 21 required to see to the application of payments so made and the receipt of any 22 such person therefore shall be a full discharge for the Trustee. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this instrument, Trustee, in the absolute discretion of Trustee, may make the final distribution of the remaining assets in termination of 1 any Trust at any earlier date if the value of such assets is less than Five 2 Thousand Dollars ($5,000).

3 9.6 Protection From Creditors. Except for that portion of a beneficiary's 4 share of the Trust which would qualify for the marital deduction provided by 5 Section 2056 of the Code, or as a qualified domestic trust under Section 2056A 6 of the Code, and then only during Survivor's lifetime with respect to such portion, 7 no share or interest of any beneficiary shall vest in the beneficiary until actually 8 paid or delivered to him or her by Trustee. No share or interest of a beneficiary 9 shall be liable for his or her debts or be subject to the process or seizure of any 10 court or be an asset in bankruptcy of any beneficiary. No beneficiary hereunder 11 shall have power to anticipate, alienate or encumber his or her interest in a Trust 12 Estate or in the income therefrom. If by reason of a bankruptcy, judgment or any 13 other cause, any income or principal would, except for this provision, vest in or 14 be enjoyed by any person other than the beneficiary intended by the terms of this 15 instrument, then such principal or income shall not be distributed but shall be 16 withheld by Trustee during the life of the beneficiary or any shorter period or 17 periods in the absolute discretion of the Trustee. Notwithstanding the foregoing, 18 no share or interest qualifying for the marital deduction provided under Section 19 2056 of the Code, or as a qualified domestic trust under Section 2056A of the 20 Code, shall be subject to assignment, alienation, pledge, attachment or claims of 21 creditors.
22

17 9.7 Annual Accounting. Trustee shall submit no less frequently than 18 annually to any beneficiary entitled to current distributions of Trust income or 19 principal, statements showing the true condition of each Trust Estate of which 20 such person is a beneficiary. The books and records pertaining to such Trust 21 shall be open to the beneficiary or beneficiaries at all times during business 22 hours. Trustee is relieved from all of the duties which would otherwise be placed upon Trustee by the act relating to accounting by Trustees in force in the state of 1 Washington at the time this instrument is executed, or any amendment or 2 amendments thereto, or by any similar laws, act or acts of the same or any other state or jurisdiction.

3       9.8 Pooling of Trusts. Trustee need not segregate and may combine 4 the assets of the separate Trusts established by this instrument for the purpose 5 of administration. In the event this is done, Trustee shall maintain books of account so the interest of each beneficiary in each Trust is readily ascertainable.

6       9.9 Pour Over of Funds. The Trustee may receive additional property 7 to be held according to the terms of any Trust established hereunder, whether by 8 Will, provisions of another Trust, designation as the beneficiary of an insurance 9 policy, annuity, pension or profit sharing plan, individual retirement account, other 10 testamentary or inter vivos transfer, or otherwise, made in writing expressly 11 referring to such Trust. Subject to Article 11 regarding allocation of death taxes, 12 under no circumstances shall such transferred property be used to pay a 13 Trustor's debts, claims outstanding at death, estate, inheritance or other taxes 14 imposed by reason of such Trustor's death. Trustee may loan such funds for 15 those purposes. Unless otherwise provided, property so added by reason of a 16 Trustor's death shall be allocated among the Trusts established hereunder as if it 17 was property passing under this instrument by reason of the death of the Trustor 18 whose death caused such property to pass or be paid. Unless otherwise 19 directed, if the property is added by a Trustor other than by reason of such 20 Trustor's death: it shall be held, administered and distributed as if part of the 21 Trust Estate originally transferred to the Trustee by such Trustor. If the property 22 is added to the Trust by someone other than a Trustor or is added other than by reason of a Trustor's death, the transferor may designate or allocate the transferred property to one or more Trusts established by this instrument, but if no specific designation is made, the Trustee shall divide the property equally among the Trusts (if more than one then is existing).

1           9.10 Merger With Similar Trusts; Division of Trusts. If at any time there 2 are two or more Trusts under this instrument or any other instrument which are to 3 fulfill substantially similar purposes for the same beneficiary or beneficiaries, any 4 two or more of such Trusts may, in the discretion of the Trustees of such Trusts, 5 be merged or consolidated if the probable effect of such merger or consolidation 6 will not be to the substantial disadvantage of such beneficiary or beneficiaries. If 7 the Trustees of the Trusts are not the same persons, they shall serve as Co-8 Trustees of the merged or consolidated Trusts, unless it is agreed by such 9 Trustees that only one of them should serve as Trustee. Similarly, Trustee shall 10 have the discretionary power to subdivide separate or separable shares of a 11 single Trust into separate Trusts. These powers to combine and divide Trusts 12 may be exercised from time to time, and may be used to modify or reverse their 13 prior exercise. In deciding whether and how to exercise this authority Trustee 14 may (but need not) take into account efficiencies of administration, taxes and any 15 other considerations Trustee may deem appropriate to these decisions.

16           9.11 Definition of Education. The term "education" shall mean 17 elementary, high school, technical and preparatory schooling, college, university, 18 graduate school and all other types of general or special educational training, 19 including travel and recreational activities of an educational nature such as study 20 programs, trips to foreign countries and summer camps. Trustee may withhold 21 distributions for education if, in the sole judgment of Trustee, such education is 22 not reasonably expected to contribute to and enhance the beneficiary's ability to become and remain financially self-supporting or if Trustee determines that the beneficiary is not making an earnest effort to take full advantage of the educational opportunities so provided.

          9.12 Definition of Disability or Disabled. Disability or being disabled shall include the inability to manage property and affairs effectively for reasons such as mental illness, mental deficiency, physical illness or disability, advanced age,

1 chronic use of drugs, chronic intoxication, confinement, detention by a foreign 2 power or disappearance. Disability of a Trustor shall be determined by his or her 3 physician and one other physician, except that the existence of confinement, 4 detention by a foreign power or disappearance shall be determined by Trustee 5 based on the available facts and circumstances, and such Trustee's 6 determination shall be conclusive. Disability may also be determined by a court 7 of competent jurisdiction.

8 9.13 Reliance on Good Faith Actions; Liability. Every action made in 9 good faith by Trustee in the exercise of any power, authority, judgment or 10 discretion conferred hereunder (including without limitation, disclaimers, 11 releases, or elections with respect to taxes) shall be conclusive and binding upon 12 all persons interested in the assets of any Trust established hereunder. If 13 Trustee has special skills, he is under no extra duty to exercise those special 14 skills unless such Trustee is a bank, corporation with trust powers or is named as 15 Trustee on the basis of representations of special skills or expertise. Trustee 16 shall not be liable for loss caused by or resulting from an error of judgment with 17 respect to any action taken or omitted requiring the exercise of discretion if 18 Trustee shall have acted in good faith, nor shall Trustee be liable for loss caused 19 by or resulting from any other act or omission in the absence of bad faith.
20 Trustee shall be fully protected in relying upon the advice of legal counsel on 21 questions of law if reasonable care was exercised in the selection and retention 22 of such counsel. If all beneficiaries who are adults and are entitled to income distributions accept in writing the final report of Trustor's Personal Representative, Trustee shall not be required to investigate the activities of the Personal Representative, nor shall Trustee incur any liability for failure to seek redress for any action of such Personal Representative.

9.14 Insurance. The best efforts of Trustee shall be used to collect all sums payable to Trustee as beneficiary under any policy of life insurance on a 1 Trustor's life. Trustee shall have full authority and power to institute any legal 2 proceedings for collection or enforcement and without court approval may make 3 any compromise, settlement or adjustment Trustee deems appropriate. Trustee 4 shall not be required to institute any legal proceedings to collect or enforce such 5 policies unless and until Trustee is indemnified against the expenses thereof to 6 the Trustee's satisfaction. All such expenses may be charged against the Trust 7 Estate or Estates to which allocable. Any insurance company issuing a policy 8 wherein a Trustor's Personal Representative or Trustee is the designated 9 beneficiary of all or any portion of the proceeds may pay such proceeds to 10 Trustee named herein and Trustee's receipt therefore shall be a full and 11 complete release and discharge to the insurance company. No such company 12 shall be responsible for the application of any money or thing of value paid to 13 Trustee or for carrying out any provisions of this instrument. Notwithstanding any 14 provision seemingly to the contrary, any person whose life is insured by a policy 15 which is a Trust asset or the proceeds of which are payable to Trustee shall have 16 no right, authority or power with respect to the distribution of such proceeds. If 17 such person is serving as Trustee, he or she shall have no power to exercise or 18 possess any incident of ownership in such policy. Another Trustee or Trustees 19 shall exclusively possess and exercise all such incidents of ownership. If no 20 other Trustee is then serving, an independent Trustee shall be appointed for that 21 purpose.

22 9.15 Disclaimers and Releases. For a period of nine (9) months following the date of a Trustor's death, Trustee may, but need not, disclaim or release all or any portion of a legacy, devise, bequest, gift or power of appointment passing to or created in a Trustor, unless already accepted by Trustor. These powers shall be in addition to any other similar powers provided to a Trustor's Personal Representative or Trustee under applicable law.

1           9.16 Disabled Beneficiary-Purposes. Notwithstanding any other 2 provision herein to the contrary, the purpose of any Trust established hereunder 3 with respect to any beneficiary who is handicapped or disabled shall be to 4 provide extra and supplemental health, support, maintenance and education in 5 addition to and over and above the benefits such beneficiary would otherwise be 6 entitled to receive as a result of his or her handicap or disability from any local, 7 state or federal governmental department or agency, or from any private agency, 8 any of which provide services or benefits to handicapped or disabled persons. It 9 is Trustors' express intention that distributions of the income or principal of any 10 Trust established hereunder to any disabled or handicapped beneficiary be made 11 at the sole and absolute discretion of Trustee for the sole purpose of providing 12 extra and supplemental benefits to such a beneficiary. Provided however, this 13 Article 9.16 shall not apply to the income interest of Survivor's share of any Trust 14 hereunder for which a marital deduction is allowed under Section 2056 of the 15 Code (or which is a Qualified Domestic Trust), in which case all income thereof is 16 to be distributed to Survivor as provided in the Marital Trust.

17           9.17 Prevention of Perpetuities. Notwithstanding any term or provision 18 in this instrument seemingly to the contrary, any trust established hereunder 19 which has not terminated at some earlier date, shall, in any event, terminate only 20 at the end of the maximum term allowed under Washington state law.

21           9.18 Interpretation and Governing Law Where context and 22 circumstances require, the gender of all words used in this instrument shall include the masculine, feminine and neuter, and the singular of all words shall include the plural and the plural the singular. This instrument shall be construed and interpreted in accordance with the internal laws of the State of Washington, provided, however, the situs of any Trust created hereunder may be changed as Provided under applicable law.

1        9.19 Administration of Residential Property. Trustee may retain or 2 purchase any residential property and maintain it at the expense of the Trust as 3 long as Trustee deems it practicable to do so in furtherance of the Trust 4 purposes. Whatever homes (including winter or summer recreational residences 5 and any condominium units for personal use) in which a Trustor held an interest 6 at the time of such Trustor's death and are part of any Trust Estate shall be 7 available for the use of such Trustor as long as Trustor so desires. Trustee shall 8 maintain such homes at the expense of the Trust, including payment of taxes and 9 assessments. Such homes shall not be sold without Trustor's consent if living, or, 10 in the event of Trustor's incapacity, the consent of such Trustor's legal guardian 11 or attorney in fact under a durable power of attorney.

12        9.20 Notwithstanding any provision of this trust to the contrary, with 13 respect to any IRA, 401K, tax deferred annuity, or other retirement plan or 14 arrangement payable to the trust, the Trustee shall withdraw from such plan, in 15 each year, the minimum required distribution under Code § 401(a)(9) for such 16 year computed based on the life expectancy of the oldest Beneficiary, and 17 immediately distribute such amounts in equal shares to the Beneficiaries living at 18 the time of such distribution. Provided, the Trustee is authorized to hold in trust, 19 (rather than immediately distributing such amounts of minimum distribution 20 directly to each Beneficiary outright), and to manage and distribute such amounts 21 pursuant to the distributions set forth above if such continued management of the 22 minimum distributions is allowed under the "minimum Distribution Rules" of § 401(a)(9) of the Code or other comparable provisions of law in effect at the time such distributions are otherwise to have been made outright to the Beneficiaries.

ARTICLE X

Successor And Co-Trustees

10.1 Successor Trustee. In the event either CLIFFORD R. PHILLIPS or DIXIE D. PHILLIPS is for any reason unable or unwilling to act as Trustee, or if, having accepted, later resigns, or becomes unable to perform, or is removed, the other shall serve as sole Trustee. If for any reason both CLIFFORD R. PHILLIPS and DIXIE D. PHILLIPS are unable or unwilling to act as Trustee, or if, having accepted, both should later resign, or become unable to perform, or be removed, then DERRYL EVANS and JAMES SKETCHLEY shall serve as successor Co-Trustees. If for any reason either DERRYL EVANS or JAMES SKETCHLEY is unable or unwilling to act as Trustee or if, having accepted, should later resign or become unable to perform, or be removed, then the other shall serve as sole successor Trustee. Any successor Trustee shall have the same power as the original Trustee to designate a successor. Any Trustee may resign without approval of the court upon providing an accounting of Trust assets in a manner satisfactory to the successor Trustee as indicated by the written acceptance of Trust assets and approval of such accounting by the successor Trustee. Appointment of a successor Trustee as provided herein shall not require court approval.

10.2 Removal of Trustee. Any Trustee may be removed through the procedures under Chapter 11 RCW.

10.3 Co-Trustees. If two or more persons or entities are serving as Trustee of any Trust hereunder, one (1) Trustee of such Trust designated in writing by all Trustees of such Trust shall have full authority to write checks from such Trust Estate bank account and to exercise all rights, including voting rights and transfer rights, with respect to shares of stock or securities held in Trust. This authority provided for the convenience of Trustee shall relieve third parties,
