FAILAH G. ("FAYE") CARLSON
(Effective Immediately)

1. Designations. FAILAH G. ("Faye") CARLSON (the "Principal") residing and domiciled in the state of Washington hereby revokes any and all durable powers of attorney for financial and property matters previously executed by her and designates CHRISTOPHER S. SHERMAN as attorney-in-fact in the name, place, and stead of the Principal. In the event CHRISTOPHER S. SHERMAN is unable or unwilling to so act, then the Principal appoints MELODY L. ("Lee") DIAMOND as the alternate attorney-in-fact; and in the event MELODY L. DIAMOND is unable or unwilling to so act, then the Principal appoints LISA G. YUMUL as the alternate attorney-in-fact.

2. Purpose. The primary purpose in granting this power of attorney is to allow the Principal's agent(s) to act for the Principal in Principal's place and stead. Accordingly, the Principal's agent(s) shall have all powers as are necessary or desirable to act as Principal's attorney-in-fact, regardless of whether or not Principal is incapacitated.

3. Effectiveness. This Durable Power of Attorney shall be effective immediately and shall not be affected by the later disability of the Principal.

4. Powers. The attorney-in-fact, as fiduciary, shall have all powers of an absolute owner over the assets and liabilities of the Principal whether located within or without the state of Washington, including but not limited to the following powers:

a. Accounts of Financial Institutions. To make deposits to and payments from any account in a financial institution, including but not limited to banks, trust companies, mutual savings banks, savings and loan associations, credit unions, and securities dealers. This shall further include the authority to maintain and close existing accounts; to open, maintain, and close other accounts; and to make deposits, transfers, and withdrawals with respect to all such accounts.

b. Safe Deposit Box. To enter any safe deposit box in which the Principal has the right of access.

c. Real Property. To purchase, take possession of, lease, sell, convey, exchange, mortgage, release, and encumber real property or any interest in real property.

d. Personal Property. To purchase, receive, take possession of, lease, sell, assign, endorse, exchange, release, mortgage, and pledge personal property or any interest in personal property.

e. Securities. To deal in any manner with all types of securities, including the right to transfer and sell securities.

f. Disclaimer. To renounce or disclaim any interest otherwise passing to the Principal by intestate or testate succession, or by inter vivos transfer. In so disclaiming, the attorney-in-fact may rely with acquittance upon the advice of the Principal's attorney regarding the Principal's estate planning objectives.

g. Federal Taxes. To make all tax returns and pay all taxes required by law, including federal, state, and gift tax returns, and to file all claims for abatement or refund and other papers relating thereto.

h. Monies Due. To request, demand, recover, collect, endorse, and receive all monies, debts, accounts, gifts, bequests, dividends, annuities, rents, and payments due the Principal.

i. Transfer of Assets. To make any transfer of resources not prohibited under RCW Chapter 74.09 as now or hereafter amended or recodified, when the transfer is for the purpose of qualifying the Principal for medical assistance or limited casualty program for the medically needy or for the purpose of preserving for the Principal, or Principal's relative(s), the maximum amount of property allowed under applicable law if an application has been made for governmental medical assistance or in anticipation of such application. In addition to the authority herein granted, the attorney-in-fact shall have the further authority to make transfers of resources not otherwise prohibited under state or federal law for the purpose of avoiding the application of any lien under RCW Chapter 74.09 and RCW 43.20B as now or later amended or recodified.

j. Delegation of Authority. To delegate, in writing, to any alternate or successor attorney-in-fact named above any authority granted under this power of attorney. If the Principal is terminally ill, the attorney-in-fact shall have the power to consent to the withdrawal and/or withholding of life-sustaining procedures consistent with the terms of any health care directive executed by the Principal. If the Principal has entered into a separate Durable Power of Attorney for Health Care designating another attorney-in-fact to act on behalf of the Principal with respect to medical care and treatment, then the separate Durable Power of Attorney for Health Care shall prevail with respect to the designation of attorney-in-fact and all health care decisions.

6. Revocation. The Principal may revoke this power of attorney at any time by giving the attorney-in-fact written notice personally delivered or mailed to the last known address for the attorney-in-fact.

8. Accounting. The attorney-in-fact shall be required to account to a guardian of the estate of the Principal, trustee of the Principal's revocable trust, special representative designated in the Principal's revocable trust, or personal representative of the estate of the Principal, if requested by any of them.

Any action so taken in good faith, unless otherwise invalid or unenforceable, shall be binding on the heirs, legatees, devisees, and personal representative of the Principal. 11. Costs and Compensation. The attorney-in-fact shall be reimbursed for all costs and expenses reasonably incurred. In addition, the attorney-in-fact shall be paid at least annually, without court approval, such compensation for services performed by the attorney-in-fact as is reasonable in the community for like services performed by an attorney-in-fact and/or a guardian of the estate.
