Pursuant to RCW 62A.9-501(4), if this deed of trust encumbers both real and personal property, the trustee is authorized to sell all or any portion of the grantor's interest in the real and personal property at the trustee's sale. Any person except Trustee may bid at Trustee's sale. Trustee shall apply the proceeds of the sale as follows: (1) to the expense of the sale, including a reasonable Trustee's fee and attorney's fee; (2) to the obligation secured by this Deed of Trust; (3) the surplus, if any, shall be distributed to the persons entitled thereto.

Trustee's deed shall recite the facts showing that the sale was conducted in compliance with all the requirements of law and of the Deed of Trust, which recital shall be prima facie evidence of such compliance and conclusive evidence thereof in favor of bonafide purchaser and encumbrancers for value.

6. The power of sale conferred by this Deed of Trust and by the Deed of Trust Act of the State of Washington is not an exclusive remedy; Beneficiaries may cause this Deed of Trust to be foreclosed as a mortgage.

7. In the event of a death, incapacity, disability or resignation of Trustee or the election of the beneficiary to replace the trustee, Beneficiaries may appoint in writing a successor Trustee, and upon the recording of such appointment in the mortgage records of the county in which this Deed of Trust is recorded, the successor trustee shall be vested with all powers of the original trustee. The trustee is not obligated to notify any party hereto of pending sale under any other Deed of Trust or of any action or proceeding in which Grantors, Trustee or Beneficiaries shall be a party unless such action or proceeding is brought by the Trustee.

8. This Deed of Trust applies to, inures to the benefit of, and is binding not only on the parties hereto, but on their heirs/devisees, legatees, administrators, executors and assigns. The term Beneficiaries shall mean the holder and owner of the note secured hereby, whether or not named as Beneficiaries herein.

9. As additional security, Grantor hereby give and confer upon Beneficiaries the right, power, and authority, during the continuance of this trust, to collect the property income, reserving to Grantor the right, prior to any default by Grantor in payment of any indebtedness secured hereby or in performance of any agreement hereunder, to collect and retain such property income as it becomes due and payable. Upon any such default, Beneficiaries may at any time, without notice, either in person, by agent, or by a receiver, to be appointed by a court, and without regard to the adequacy of any security for the indebtedness hereby secured, enter upon and take possession of said property or any part thereof, in his own name, sue for or otherwise collect such property income, including that past due and unpaid, and apply the same, less costs and expenses of operation and collection, including reasonable attorney's fees, upon any indebtedness secured hereby, and in such order as Beneficiaries may determine. The entering upon and taking possession of said property, the collection of such property income, and the application thereof, as aforesaid, shall not cure or waive any default or notice of trustee's sale hereunder or invalidate any act done pursuant to such notice.
