RE: Northwest Straits Marine Conservation Initiative Reauthorization

Dear Senator Murray,

We, as Skagit County's Board of County Commissioners, urge you to support the Northwest Straits (NWS) Marine Conservation Initiative Reauthorization. Congressional reauthorization is needed to ensure ongoing federal support that fully funds the NWS Marine Conservation Initiative. The Initiative's leadership and work is critical to the health of our marine resources in our county and six others—making up a majority of the counties in the Puget Sound region. We rely on these resources for a strong economy and a robust way of life.

The NWS Initiative provides technical assistance, coordination, and base funding support to seven county-based Marine Resources Committees (MRC), including Skagit County MRC. The work that MRCs do protects and restores our valuable marine resources and nearshore environment. Our county, like others, faces ongoing pressures from population growth, climate change, and habitat loss, making the contributions of MRCs more important than ever.

MRCs are made up of local volunteers who prioritize and lead restoration, monitoring, and education projects and serve as advisory bodies to local elected officials, including Skagit's Board of County Commissioners. The MRC serves a unique role by convening a diversity of community perspectives from tribal, economic, recreational, and environmental interests to prioritize and initiate consensus-driven work. A few examples from our county include shoreline restoration, community education on marine ecosystems, and marine habitat monitoring.

Project implementation through our MRC is a cost-effective way of contributing to recovery and protection of marine resources that are important to our county residents and the local economy. Funding and support from the NWS Initiative assures we can maintain this locally driven approach to solving problems in our region.

We hope that we can count on your help to see that this important work will continue and be adequately funded.

Sincerely,

BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS
