11:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m. Mock Hearing with Allen Elementary Students.
(Hearing Room "A", County Administration Building).

The Skagit County Board of Commissioners met on Wednesday, April 22, 1992, to participate in a mock hearing regarding a proposal to build a road from "Emerald City" through the "Emerald Rain Forest" in order to build a hydroelectric dam on the "Emerald River". The Allen Elementary sixth grade classes researched and prepared statements for or against the proposed road from varying groups including: scientists, economists, anthropologist/environmental consultant, cattle ranchers, local indian tribe, bankers, utility company, national parks, lumber company, and the Emerald City Mayors office.

ADJOURNMENT

Commissioner Wylie motioned to adjourn the proceedings. Commissioner Vaux seconded the motion, which carried unanimously.
