g) 11:45 a.m. - 12:00 p.m. Presentation by North Sound Behavioral Health Executive Director Joe Valentine: Proposed Oak Harbor Crisis Center

Chair Dahlstedt reconvened the proceedings at 11:45 a.m. and introduced Executive Director Joe Valentine.

Mr. Valentine provided an overview of a proposal for a Crisis Stabilization Center located in Oak Harbor that would serve Island, San Juan and West Skagit Counties. Mr. Valentine said that there was a request to allocate $1 million from Skagit County's future Stabilization Campus towards the proposed Oak Harbor Stabilization Center. He discussed other funding requests made by Island County towards the center and the need for crisis beds in Island and San Juan Counties. Discussion was held regarding the importance of securing funds in order to provide a viable project to the legislature for additional funding, and the number of treatment beds needed in the 5-county region.

Chair Dahlstedt shared concerns that a joint meeting had not yet been held to discuss if the location in Oak Harbor met everyone's needs and if the Sheriff, mayor of the City of Anacortes, and Anacortes police chief had been asked if the location worked for their needs. He also said that the bed available to Island and San Juan Counties at Lila Lane was not being utilized. He requested a meeting be set with regional partners before a regional decision was made to allocate $1 million to the project.

Mr. Valentine said he would set a meeting and schedule a vote.
