

Skagit County, WA

Respiratory Illness Report

CDC Week 6: February 8 - February 14, 2026

INFLUENZA

Activity decreased from previous week

4 outbreak in the last 3 months

3 deaths in the last 3 months

RSV

Activity decreased from previous week

2 outbreaks in the last 3 months

0 deaths in the last 3 months

COVID-19

Activity increased from previous week

2 outbreaks in the last 3 months

0 deaths in the last 3 months

Arrows reflect week-over-week change based on % ED Visits and % Positive. Less than/greater than 10% = up/down arrow. Within 10% = about the same. For mixed results, arrow reflects greatest change.

% Emergency Department Visits at Skagit County Hospitals

% Total Positive Tests at Skagit County hospitals

% of Emergency Department Visits for Acute Respiratory Illness (ARI) in North Sound Accountable Communities of Health (ACH) Region

Weekly Percent positivity rates of common respiratory pathogens

Respiratory PCR test data shared by Skagit Valley Hospital- IP/ED only

Mount Vernon Wastewater Treatment Plant (WWTP)

COVID-19 Viral Activity Level: Low

Variants*

- XFG.1.1
- XFG.1
- Unreportable
- XFG.6
- Other
- XFG
- LF.7
- LB.13.1

*Variants based on data availability

NOTE: The respiratory illness season typically runs from October 1 through May 31. SOURCE: Data are from ESSENCE syndromic surveillance system, WAWBE Waste Water Surveillance Program, and Skagit County hospital partners. Questions? Contact Skagit County Public Health: 360-416-1500 or CommunicableDisease@co.skagit.wa.us