

INFLUENZA

↑ Activity increased from previous week

7 outbreak in the last 3 months

4 deaths in the last 3 months

RSV

↓ Activity increased from previous week

2 outbreaks in the last 3 months

0 deaths in the last 3 months

COVID-19

↓ Activity decreased from previous week

3 outbreaks in the last 3 months

0 deaths in the last 3 months

Arrows reflect week-over-week change based on % ED Visits and % Positive. Less than/greater than 10% = up/down arrow. Within 10% = about the same. For mixed results, arrow reflects greatest change.

NOTE: The respiratory illness season typically runs from October 1 through May 31. SOURCE: Data are from ESSENCE syndromic surveillance system, WAWBE Waste Water Surveillance Program, and Skagit County hospital partners. Questions? Contact Skagit County Public Health: 360-416-1500 or CommunicableDisease@co.skagit.wa.us