

Skagit County, WA

Respiratory Illness Report

CDC Week 41: October 4 - October 11, 2025

INFLUENZA

Activity about the same
from previous week

0 outbreaks in the last 3 months

RSV

Activity about the same
from previous week

0 outbreaks in the last 3 months

COVID-19

Activity increased
from previous week

8 outbreaks in the last 3 months

Arrows reflect week-over-week change from % ED visits and % positive. Less than/greater than 10% = up/down arrow. Within 10% = about the same. For mixed results, arrow reflects greatest change.

% ED Visits at Skagit County Hospitals

% Total Positive Tests at Skagit County hospitals

Mount Vernon Wastewater Treatment Plant (WWTP) 7-Day Rolling Average for SARS-CoV-2 Concentration Levels

Variants

Weekly Percent positivity rates of common respiratory pathogens Respiratory PCR testdata shared by Skagit Regional Health Facilities- IP/ED only

NOTE: The respiratory illness season typically runs from October 1 through May 31. SOURCE: Data are from ESSENCE syndromic surveillance system, WAWBE Waste Water Surveillance Program, and Skagit County hospital partners. Questions? Contact Skagit County Public Health: 360-416-1500 or CommunicableDisease@co.skagit.wa.us