

Skagit County, WA

Respiratory Illness Report

CDC Week 1: December 28 - January 3, 2026

INFLUENZA

Activity increased from previous week

1 outbreaks in the last 3 months

RSV

Activity decreased from previous week

0 outbreaks in the last 3 months

COVID-19

Activity increased from previous week

0 outbreaks in the last 3 months

Arrows reflect week-over-week change from % ED visits and % positive. Less than/greater than 10% = up/down arrow. Within 10% = about the same. For mixed results, arrow reflects greatest change.

% Emergency Department Visits at Skagit County Hospitals

% Total Positive Tests at Skagit County hospitals

% of Emergency Department Visits for Acute Respiratory Illness (ARI) in North Sound Accountable Communities of Health (ACH) Region

% positive
0% 5% 10% 15% 20%

Weekly Percent positivity rates of common respiratory pathogens

Respiratory PCR test data shared by Skagit Valley Hospital- IP/ED only

Mount Vernon Wastewater Treatment Plant (WWTP)

COVID-19 Viral Activity Level: Very Low

Variants

NOTE: The respiratory illness season typically runs from October 1 through May 31. SOURCE: Data are from ESSENCE syndromic surveillance system, WAWBE Waste Water Surveillance Program, and Skagit County hospital partners. Questions? Contact Skagit County Public Health: 360-416-1500 or CommunicableDisease@co.skagit.wa.us