

Barn Number 49

Historic Name: James Doran Farm
Address of Barn: 9760 District Line Rd,
Burlington
Built Date: 1918
Built By: Unknown
Barn Style: English Gambrel
Features: Cupola

History: James Doran purchased the property in 1913 for $5,500. It is assumed he was the builder of this barn. Established as a dairy farm, the barn is a 40 cow flat barn with horse stalls on one end and a hay loft. It has an L-shaped tractor storage area. This was a prize winning Guernsey farm up until the 1970s. The barn is now used to raise dairy cows.

Barn Number 50

Historic Name: John Dahlstedt Barn
Address of Barn: 20141 Cook Road,
Burlington
Built Date: 1900
Built By: John Dahlstedt
Barn Style: Broken Gable
Features: Milking Shed

History: The barn was built by John Dahlstedt at the turn of the 20th century and was in the Dahlstedt family until 1987 when it was purchased by the current owners. It was a dairy until the 1960s and has been used for raising livestock since. The structure has three hay tracks, expansive lofts and it retains 90 percent of its original siding.

Barn Number 51

Historic Name: Lloyd Farm
Address of Barn: 21220 Cook Road,
Burlington
Built Date: c. 1925
Built By: [Unknown]
Barn Style: Dutch Gambrel
Features: Cupola

History: According to County Records, Franklin and Gertrude Lloyd transferred ownership of the farm to Theodore A. Lloyd on September 18th, 1925. The Barn was built around 1925, but not sure who was owner at the time of the build. Verbal history from the son of the original owner says the fantastic wooden rafters had been designed by someone at Washington State College. In County records, there is a covenant on file stating that the barn could never be turned in to a "dance hall"! We have been unable to locate any documents about the covenant, but will keep looking!
