Crisis Support & Community Resource Meeting

#SkagitStrong

Date:

Thursday, October 13, 2016

Time:

6 p.m. — 7:30 p.m.

Location:

Burlington Public Library
Community Meeting Room

After incidents of mass violence, direct victims, surviving victims, witnesses, and community members may suffer long term emotional, psychological, and physiological impacts weeks, months, and years following the crime. Please join Victim Support Services and other community agencies to learn about common trauma reactions, and how you may assist and support others in need.

Local community resource information will be provided in response to tragic events that took place at Cascade Mall. For more information contact Victim Support Services 360-756-1780 or toll free 888-288-9221.
