

Dispute Resolution Center's Restorative Justice Program

	April 2010- March 2011	April 2011- March 2012	April 2012- March 2013
Number of juvenile offenders referred to Victim Offender Impact Competency Education (VOICE):	108	116	116
Number of juvenile offenders successfully completed Victim Offender Impact Competency Education (VOICE):	86	92	91
Number of juvenile offenders referred to Victim Offender Meeting (VOM) Program:	16	5	4
Number of juvenile offenders who participated in a face-to-face meeting with their victim(s):	5	1	0
Number of juvenile offenders who participated in a Restorative Alternative meeting:	10	4	4
Number of parents/family of juvenile offenders who participated in VOM:	15	4	5
Number of victims contacted by Dispute Resolution Center:	11	5	3
Number of victims who agreed to meet in person with their offender:	5	1	0
Number of victims who chose not to meet with their offender but did receive a letter of apology:	1	2	3
Number of volunteer hours contributed	320	60	340

Percentage of offenders who were either very satisfied or satisfied with how the DRC conducted victim offender meetings:

Yr 1: 94%

Yr 2: 100%

Yr 3: 100%

Percentage of victims who were either very satisfied or satisfied with the way the DRC handled the case, the conduct of the victim offender meeting, and the outcome of the meeting.

Yr 1: 100%

Yr 2: 100%

Yr 3: 100%

The Skagit DRC has successfully completed 15 parent-teen mediations since 2010.