

VOLUNTEERING OPPORTUNITY

WITH SKAGIT COUNTY K9

SEARCH AND RESCUE UNIT

Are you an able-bodied person with a desire to contribute to your community through Search and Rescue but are unable to devote the time needed to become a member? Would you like to come out in the fresh air to “get lost” for our dogs?

Our dogs need people who are willing and able to walk up to a mile in sometimes irregular terrain creating human scent trails for our dogs to follow. Some trails are short, some longer. This involves waiting, at times up to an hour at the end of the trail, so it has time to age before the team is sent out to find you. Trails are set in rural and urban settings and we try to plan our locations to be convenient for you.

Your reward is that our dogs find you and you can be proud that you participated in their training. We can only use each new person for one weekend (unless you are a registered Skagit County Emergency Worker) so it is fun and not a large commitment.
